Re: Nelly Feliz v. JPMorgan Chase & Co.
Docket No. 07-cv-05694

Dear Judge Holwell:

Pursuant to a telephone conversation with Mr. William J. Donald today, the defendant ("JPMorgan") in the above-referenced matter hereby requests an additional 30 days in which to answer or otherwise respond to the Complaint.

JPMorgan removed this action to this Court on June 14, 2007. An answer or other response was due five days later, on June 19, 2007. On June 19, 2007, JPMorgan filed its first motion to extend the time to respond to the Complaint. JPMorgan sought the consent of Plaintiff's counsel to that motion, but Plaintiff's counsel did not respond to several messages. The Court has not yet ruled on the first motion.

JPMorgan seeks an extension until July 26, 2007 in order that it may complete its investigation and response to the Complaint. This is the second such request for an extension of time. Plaintiff's counsel has still not responded to JPMorgan's request for an extension.

Very truly yours,

Joseph Geoghegan, Esq.
